

UNC CHARLOTTE FACULTY-LED PROGRAM

MEXICO

MAPPING PLACE AND PERSON IN MEXICO CITY

Hola, Students!

Step into the vibrant heart of Mexico City, where ancient history and modern creativity meet. Over 10 unforgettable days, explore the city's museums, art, architecture, cuisine, and historic sites while discovering the stories woven into its streets and neighborhoods. From the ruins of Tenochtitlan to contemporary cultural spaces, you'll experience how place, identity, history, and storytelling shape one another. Through writing, art, mapping, and immersive exploration, this journey invites you to see Mexico City, and yourself, with fresh eyes. Come discover, create, and become part of the story.

Your Faculty Directors,
Dr. Helen Davies & Erica Hussey
