

QINGLIMENG

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION

February 8, 2013

Telephone: 704-604-5276 (Cell)

Email: qlmeng@uncc.edu

2. SPECIALIZATION

Public Policy, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Chinese Politics, Public Administration,
Criminal Justice

3. EDUCATION

May, 2011 Ph.D. (Public Policy Analysis) University of North Carolina- Charlotte
Dissertation: On Corruption-Related Crimes in Transitional China: A Panel Data Analysis from a Multi-Disciplinary Perspective.

May, 2005 Master of Public Management University of North Carolina – Pembroke

June, 1991 Undergraduate Xuzhou Normal University

4. LANGUAGES English, Chinese

5. PUBLICATIONS

Published:

Book

2013 Qingli Meng “An Empirical Study on Corruption in Transitional China”, China Fangzheng
Press, Beijing, China (in Chinese)

Book Chapter

2010 Qingli Meng and Paul C. Friday “Corruption in Transitional China—From a Criminological Perspective”pp 711-724 in V.Konarska and J. Lachowski (Eds). Major Problems of Contemporary Criminal Law, Criminology and Victimology. Wolters Kluwer Publ. Office, Polish Branch.

2012 Qingli Meng and Paul C. Friday, “Victims of Corruption” is under peer review for inclusion in the Routledge International Handbook of Victimology

Signed the Contract for Book Publication:

Book

Qingli Meng “Corruption in Transitional China: A 30 Year Study”, Njemingen, The Netherlands: Wolf Legal Publishers

Re-submission for publication

Article manuscripts:

Qingli Meng and Paul C. Friday “How Corruption Manifests Itself over Time in Transitional China”.
International Criminal Justice Review

Under Review

Article manuscripts:

Qingli Meng and Paul C. Friday "A Synopsis of International Professional Career Requirements in Criminal Justice," International Criminal Justice Review

Research in process:

1. On the Risk Analysis and Risk Control of China Anti-Corruption Institutional Design—A Historical Perspective in China
2. A Quantitative Analysis on the Diminished Cost of Corruption in China: A Law Enforcement Perspective
3. The Methodology of Corruption Measurement: the Combination of Objective Method, Subjective Method, and Behavior Method
4. The Hidden Cost of Corruption: In Kind or In Cash?
5. Theoretical Framework on Constructing Corruption-Free City in China

6. CONFERENCE PAPERS

2012

Jianming Ren and Qingli Meng “On the Construction of Pilot China Anti-Corruption Special Zone: A Key Strategic Choice to the Success of Pan-China Anti-Corruption Initiatives”, China Anti-Corruption Institutional Reform Seminar, College of Political Science and Public Administration at Zhongshan University, Guangdong Province, China, December 15-16

QingliMeng “A Quantitative Analysis on the Diminished Cost of Corruption in China”, Citizen Quality and Clean Governance Seminar, Taiwan, October 18-19

QingliMeng “The Theoretical Framework on Constructing Corruption-Free Society in China”, 5th Anti-Corruption Forum, Hangzhou, China, September 10-11

QingliMeng and Paul C. Friday “Victims of Corruption.” 12th International Symposium on Victimology. Den Haag, Netherlands, May

2011

QingliMeng and Paul C. Friday “Corruption in China: The Impact of Anti-Corruption Campaigns Over Time” 16th World Congress International Society for Criminology, Kobe, Japan

2010

Qingli Meng and James Douglas (Director of Public Administration Program at University of North Carolina at Charlotte) “Beyond Federal Budgeting Systems: A Comparative Examination of U.S. and Chinese: Budgeting at Regional and Local Levels” China-America Association of Public Administration, Omaha, Nebraska, October 6

2009

Qingli Meng. “Urban-Rural and Regional Inequality in China—A Public Policy Perspective” Presented at Social Equity and Leadership—Social Equity and Regional Disparities Conference, Newark, June 17-19

Qingli Meng “The Impact of Chinese Local Administrative Effectiveness on Foreign Direct Investment Firm Location Choice” Presented at the Urban Affairs Association 39th Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois on March 4-7, 2009

7. TECHNICAL REPORTS

2010

Paul C. Friday and Qingli Meng “Alcohol Purchase Studies Integrated Report. The Charlotte Mecklenburg Drug Free Coalition

2009

Paul C. Friday and Qingli Meng “UNC Charlotte Faculty/Staff Campus Safety Report” UNC Charlotte Campus Safety Committee

Paul C. Friday and Qingli Meng “UNC Charlotte Student Campus Safety Report” UNC Charlotte Campus Safety Committee

8. WORK EXPERIENCE

Current (July, 2012--)

Research Fellow, the School of Political Science and Public Administration, Beihang University, Beijing, China

Associate Director, the Center for International Studies in China, Department of Criminal Justice, UNC Charlotte

June 2011-July 2012

Associate Director, Post-Doc Research Fellow, the Center for International Studies in China, Department of Criminal Justice, UNC Charlotte

Aug 2010- June 2011

Liaison, UNC Charlotte China Initiative, Office of International Programs

2008-Aug 2010

Coordinator, International Institute/Center for Justice Studies in China, Department of Criminal Justice, UNC Charlotte.

2008-2010

Executive Board Chairman’s Assistant
China International Justice Studies Center
Southwest University of Political Science and Law, Chongqing, China

June 10-12, 2010

Program Co-Chair, International Conference on Drug Issues and Control, Chongqing, China.

2009-2010

Researcher, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Drug-Free Coalition, Charlotte, North Carolina, the United States

2008-2009

Assistant to the Treasurer, World Society of Victimology (In Consultative Status with the United Nations ECOSOC and Council of Europe)

2000- 2005

Assistant Professor School of Politics and Law, China University of Mining and Technology

1996-2000

Administrative Director of Foreign Investor Consultative Committee,
Xuzhou, Jiangsu Province, China Municipal Government,

1994-1996

Project Manager, Xuzhou, China Economic Development Zone

9. TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Spring 2012

Political Science Department at University of North Carolina at Charlotte (Chinese Politics)

Criminal Justice Department at University of North Carolina at Charlotte (Introduction to Criminal Justice)

Spring 2010

Co-teaching with Dr. Paul C. Friday, Criminal Justice Department at University of North Carolina at Charlotte (Introduction to Criminal Justice)

Co-teaching with Dr. James Douglas, Master of Public Administration at University of North Carolina at Charlotte (Global Connection)

2000-2005

Associate Professor, China University of Mining and Technology (Human Resource Management, Public Management, Economics in Public Sector)

10. COURSES PREPARED TO TEACH

Political Science

American Federal Government

State and Local Government

Chinese Politics

Comparative Government

Global Connections

Public Administration

Quantitative Research Method in Public Administration

Economics in Public Sector

Human Resource Management

Organizational Theory and Individual Behavior in the Public Sector

Public Policy

Program Evaluation

Policy Process

Research Method

Criminal Justice

Introduction to Criminal Justice

Violence

International Criminal Justice

11. GRANTS

August 2012

“How to Build a Corruption-Free Village in China” from Meizhou Municipal Government, Guangdong Province, $35,000 (forthcoming)

“The Constructing of Corruption Measurement Index” from Beihang University, $8,000

March 2011

“China Undergraduate Education” from China University of Mining and Technology, $105,710

“Work Safety Emergency Response: What do we Learn from the Related New Technology and New Equipment in the United States” from China State administration of Work Safety, $110,500

“Policy Instruction for China Decision Makers from Work Safety Emergency Support Management and Institutional Mechanism Construction in the United States” from China State Administration of Work Safety, $80,500

2010

Psychological Impact of Victims of Coal Mining Disasters”, $147,058 (Pending)

“On Law Enforcement Policy Making and Policy Implementation in Coal Mining Safety Control Issues—The United States and China Comparative Study”, $20,000 (Pending)

12. PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP AND ACTIVITY

2012

Committee Member of China Clean Government Education and Research Association

2011

Research Fellow of Anti-Corruption and Governance Research Center at Tsinghua University (Beijing)

2011

Adjunct Professor in School of Law at China University of Mining and Technology

2010

China-America Association of Public Administration Member

World Society of Victimology (In Consultative Status with the United Nations ECOSOC and Council of Europe) Member

2009

Program Committee. World Symposium 2009, Mito, Japan

13. HONORS/ Award

2011

Selected to receive UNC Charlotte’s 2011 Student International Education Award

2010

Inducted into Mu chapter of Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars

2010-2011

Appointed China Initiative Liaison by Chancellor
University of North Carolina at Charlotte

14. COMMUNITY SERVICE

1. Engaged in the Charlotte Mecklenburg Drug Free Coalition community activities
2. Contributing to and facilitating a wide range of cooperation between UNCC and the Chinese Universities