"The Association of Occupation with Mental Illnesses and Death by Suicide," Federal Office of Rural Health Policy, Health Services Research Administration, funded through the Rural and Underserved Health Research Center, University of Kentucky. Role: Co-Investigator. PI: Dr. Ahmed Arif, total funding $100,000, 2019.

"Mediation of Social Mobility in the Association of Childhood Adversity with Adult Health," Supplemental funding, Small Grant for Research Using PSID Data, University of Michigan, funded through the National Institute on Aging (P01 AG029409); Role: Co-Investigator; PI: Dr. James Laditka, total funding $15,000, 2017-2018.

"Adverse Childhood Circumstances and the Dynamics of Disability and Mortality throughout Adult Life," Small Grant for Research Using PSID Data, University of Michigan, funded through the National Institute on Aging (P01 AG029409); Role: PI: J.N. Laditka, total funding $20,000, 2016-2017.

Aging without Place: The Experience of Cumulative Trauma and Adversity among Older Homeless Adults. Principal Investigator: Dr. M. Lori Thomas; Role: Co-Institutional Faculty Sponsor, providing mentorship to Dr. Thomas in research, grant writing, teaching, and career development (with Dr. Sarah Laditka), John A. Hartford Foundation, Hartford Faculty Scholars Program in Geriatric Research, $100,000, 2011-2013.

The Healthy Brain Study: Prevention Research to Promote and Protect Brain Health (SIP 8-06). J. Laditka, PI. $750,000, 2006-2009. Performance sites: University of California, Berkeley; University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center; University of Illinois at Chicago; University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; University of Pittsburgh; University of South Carolina, Columbia; Texas A&M University, College Station; University of Washington, Seattle; West Virginia University, Morgantown. I moved from the University of South Carolina to the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in the final year of the grant, which was retained at South Carolina a Prevention Research due to CDC requirements. I mentored Daniela Friedman as PI for 2008-2009 and thereafter. As PI, I led: the development of the research plan, budgets, and research materials (focus group guide and survey); the IRB processes at the 9 research sites; training of those who conducted the focus groups; the data evaluation (including training for those using the project's qualitative research software); and the development of most of the research reports from the project.

Impact of Physical Activity on Stroke and Cognitive Function in Older Adults, 1R01NS061846-01A2. Dr. Steven Hooker, PI. NINDS, NIA, NHLBI. $3,569,616. Oct. 01, 2008 - Sept 31, 2013. Co-

Investigators: Steven N. Blair, Natalie Colabianchi, John E. Vena, J. Laditka. I contributed substantially to the application development, and was co-investigator 2008-2010.

Effect of Safety Net Providers on Hospitalization for Ambulatory Care Sensitive Conditions in Rural Counties. Office of Rural Policy, United States' Health Resources and Services Administration, through the South Carolina Rural Health Research Center. J. Laditka, PI. $150,000. 2005-2007.

Community Based Approaches to Dementia Prevention: A Supplement to the Healthy Aging Research Network (PRC-HAN), SIP 13-04. J. Laditka, PI. The PRC-HAN was funded by the CDC Healthy Aging Program in the National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion. Supported by special interest project (SIP) 14-04, and by Cooperative Agreement Numbers 1-U48-DP-000025, 1-U48-DP-000033, 1-U48-DP-000045, 1-U48-DP-000048, 1-U48-DP-000050, 1-U48-DP-000051, 1-U48-DP-000052, 1-U48-DP-000054, 1-U48-DP-000059 from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. 2005-2007. $232,000. Led 9 university PRC-HAN sites in research on factors associated with brain health and brain health promotion.

Office for the Study of Aging / Alzheimer's Disease Registry 11590-FR-04-1358 / DHHS Contract A-7-0088-A. Carol B. Cornman (PI). $2,103,364. 2007-2010. Maintain the South Carolina Alzheimer's Disease Registry; conduct epidemiological studies of Alzheimer's disease and related disorders; conduct surveys of caregivers and promote their well-being; provide comprehensive training for individuals in the community, and for long term care providers and facilities, in managing individuals with dementing illnesses; develop, deliver, and evaluate the South Carolina Choice program for community based consumer directed long term care; evaluate effects of the South Carolina Long Term Care Quality Initiative. Role: Co-Investigator and Director of Research.

The South Carolina Center for Older Adult Independence (SMARTCenter), a project sponsored by the S.C. Research Centers of Economic Excellence/Endowed Professorship Program. $10,000,000, 2008-2012. Paul Eleazer, PI. , Co-Project Directors: Judy Baskins, Johnell Brooks, Cheryl Dye, Victor Hirth, J. Laditka, William Logan, Dennis Poole, Harriet Williams. SeniorSMART™ focuses on multidisciplinary research to foster independence for senior citizens. The center's research falls under three major themes: SHARP BRAIN (helping seniors maintain intellectual activity); SMART WHEELS (promoting independent mobility outside the home for seniors); and SMART HOME (helping seniors maintain independent mobility inside the home). Role: Co-Project Director

Prevention Research Centers' Healthy Aging Research Network, SIP 13-04, Delores Pluto (PI). Healthy Aging Research Network. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Health Care and Aging Studies Branch. $59,988, 2006-2007. Develop partnerships and define a research agenda that promotes healthy aging. Role: Co-Investigator.

Model Schools Program / Technology Network Ties. New York State Legislature, IBM, Plato-Wicat, Computer Corporation of America. J. Laditka, PI. $3.9 million (1985-1987 with continuing consultation through 1990). At a time when PCs were just beginning to be used for school administration, and were used for teaching almost exclusively using "instructional software," this project provided hundreds of PCs and tool software (word processors, spreadsheets, database programs, and presentation software) to school districts throughout New York State. We led several hundreds of teachers through 3 summer weeks of curriculum development, developing ways for students to use tool software for learning, and for teachers to use tool software for instructional management. The project also provided computers and tool software training for school administrators. The project also made large scale relational databases available for school administration at the local, regional, and state levels, and connected students, teachers, and administrators across all project sites with a high-speed "internet" and email system. The project has a large and lasting impact. The project continues today, with participating school districts, Boards of Cooperative Educational Services, and Regional Information Centers throughout New York State.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Alzheimer's Association. Chicago, IL: Alzheimer's Association. Available at: http://www.alz.org/national/documents/report_healthybraininitiative.pdf. With input from a wide range of agencies and organizations, The Roadmap established a national long-term goal to maintain or improve the cognitive performance of all adults, with 14 intermediate outcomes addressing communication, surveillance, research, policy, and public health capacity. The Road Map established 44 action items, 10 of which are priorities for immediate action. The Road Map is designed to guide federal agencies and non-federal organizations. I participated in work that has led to several immediate outcomes:

- New cognitive impairment module for the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System.
- New assessment of cognitive function in the National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey.
- New topic area and objectives focused on dementia in Healthy People 2020:
 - To increase the proportion of persons with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias, or their caregivers, who are aware of the diagnosis.
 - To reduce the risk of preventable hospitalizations for adults with diagnosed Alzheimer's disease and other dementias.
- Development of briefs to educate state policy makers and guide their implementation of brain health initiatives.
- Research to understand public perceptions about brain health (the Healthy Brain Study), which I led as PI for 3 years while on the faculty of the Arnold School at the University of South Carolina.
- Used national social marketing tools (DocStyles and HealthStyles) to assess attitudes and practices of the general public and healthcare providers with respect to cognitive health.
- Over 2007-2012, Healthy Brain Study participants made more than 70 formal presentations at local, national, and international meetings.
- I participated actively as a member of the External Advisory Group, working with the CDC and the Alzheimer's Association, to develop, implement, and evaluate a community-based demonstration project to increase awareness among African Americans.
- I participated on a project assessing the state-of-science of physical activity interventions and cognitive health outcomes.
