

MIND-BATCH LAB
PSYC 3806 Undergraduate Research Assistantship Requirements
Jennifer B. Webb, Ph.D.
Fall 2013 & Spring 2014

TOTAL = 100 Points

Fall 2013/Spring 2014 (2 credit option)

1. Attending and actively participating in the weekly lab meetings on Friday mornings from 10:00-11:30 AM in Colvard 3123 and presenting 2-3 journal articles (total for the semester NOT per lab meeting) to the lab from our reading list. (25 points)
2. Assisting 6-8 hours per week on study-related tasks (25 points)
3. Selecting an independent study topic related to culture, body image, obesity, weight bias or eating disorders broadly-defined to begin researching (i.e. conducting literature searches and reading—aim for 1-2 articles per week)
4. Writing a 10 double-spaced page mini-review paper in APA format (excluding references) on your selected independent study topic (30 points)
5. Formally presenting your independent study review summary during a research team meeting at the end of the fall semester (20 points)

Fall 2013/Spring 2014 (3 credit option)

1. Attending and actively participating in the weekly lab meetings on Friday mornings from 10:00-11:30 AM in Colvard 3123 and presenting 2-3 journal articles (total for the semester NOT per lab meeting) to the lab from our reading list. (25 points)
2. Assisting 8-10 hours per week on study-related tasks (25 points)
3. Selecting an independent study topic related to culture, body image, obesity, weight bias or eating disorders broadly-defined to begin researching (i.e. conducting literature searches and reading—aim for 1-2 articles per week)
4. Writing a 12 double-spaced page mini-review paper in APA format (excluding references) on your selected independent study topic (30 points)
5. Formally presenting your independent study review summary during a research team meeting at the end of the spring semester (20 points)