

Oral History Interview With Paul Harris and Robert Brown

Interviewed on April 28, 2010

Interviewed by Kyle Cox

Interviewed for the Revolution Park Oral History Project

Time count in minutes:	Description of interview content:
0:00	Fondest memory of the course, sneaking onto the course, tournaments held
7:10	Caddying, hard times,
9:38	Caddy's Club
11:26	Rough life, jail at age 7
14:31	1967 City Am,
17:40	Impact of golf course on the neighborhood, white flight
18:45	The business of the golf course, city ownership and exclusion of the black golfers, not spending money on the maintenance of the course
23:45	Not getting equal facilities as whites on golf courses
27:53	Renovation of the golf course for the profit not for the people, Caddy Day
30:11	Ghost stories, kid activities on the course
34:00	I-77's impact on the golf course and the community
39:25	Change in the club house after integration, survival, understanding the past
46:30	Why stay in the area if it was so rough?, nothing changed, actions of today bringing back bad memories
51:32	Change for the poor people